Divine Details:

- The soaring space transformed from cream and candlelight to rich jewel-toned colors outside the columns.
- Replicated an enchanted fairy-tale forest between the soaring columns of The Corinthian.
- More flowers than you can imagine, starting with a chuppah topped with thousands upon thousands of white phalaenopsis and dendrobium orchid blossoms.
- Handmade chandeliers dripping with lemon-leaf garlands and rose pavé orbs, illuminated with pillar candles and fairy lights.
- Custom-embroidered dinner napkins.
- A cocktail-hour feast of caviar and seafood, artisan cheeses and lamb station with Persian jewel rice (studded with dried barberries and saffron).
- An elegant dinner surrounded by the lush trappings of an enchanted forest, with a trio of stunning desserts (candied pear with gold gilt leaf, spiced maple leaf cookies sandwiched with pumpkin mousse and a chocolate truffle).
- The wedding cake by Benny Daniels was cut under the chuppah as tea and miniature desserts were served in a Persian tea lounge.
- Would it surprise you to know the party went on till 4 am?
